AI Reply Audit

prepared for

[Business Name]

customer conversations, handled.

01 — WHERE YOU ARE NOW

Your current setup

Here's what we noticed about how [Business Name] currently handles incoming customer messages.

Channels you're active on	[Instagram · Facebook · Website]
Typical reply time	[several hours / next day]
After-hours messages	[currently going unanswered]
Where enquiries slip through	[DMs after 5pm · weekends · busy times]

Every message that waits — or never gets answered — is a customer who may book with someone faster.

02 — THE OPPORTUNITY

What it's costing you

Most customers message more than one business and book with whoever replies first. For a [niche] business, even a few recovered enquiries each week adds up fast.

78% of customers buy from the business that replies first.

03 — THE SOLUTION

What we'd build for you

A custom AI assistant trained on [Business Name]'s services, hours and FAQs — replying to every customer instantly, 24/7, in your brand voice and across your channels. It answers questions, books people in, and captures leads while you focus on the work.

04 — IN ACTION

Sample conversations

Examples of how your assistant would handle real customer messages:

Customer: [How much is a first appointment?]

Replyora: [It's $X and runs 45 min.] Want me to book you in?

Customer: Are you open this weekend? (sent 11:47pm)

Replyora: [Yes — open Sat 9–2.] Want me to reserve a spot for you?

Customer: Can I book an appointment?

Replyora: Of course! Can I grab your name, number and a day that suits?

08 — EASY ONBOARDING

What we'd need from you

Getting started is light-touch. All we'd need is:

- Your most common customer questions (or we'll pull them for you)
- Your logo and brand colours
- Your booking link or how you take bookings
- Access to the channels you want it on

That's it — we handle the entire build for you.

09 — QUESTIONS, ANSWERED

Frequently asked

Will it sound robotic?

No. It's trained on your business and speaks in your brand voice — most customers can't tell.

Does it replace my team?

No. It handles the repetitive questions and bookings, and hands anything complex straight to you.

Is my customers' data safe?

Yes. Conversations are handled securely and only used to answer your customers.

What if it can't answer something?

It politely takes a message and passes the enquiry to your team, so nothing is lost.

Can I change what it says?

Yes — anytime. We update and fine-tune it for you as your business changes.
